Graduation 2009

HPCA's fourth commencement ceremony was held on Friday May 29, 2009 in the sanctuary of Green Street Baptist Church. The student speakers were Joseph Winberry, student body president, Anne Stewart, 2009 Salutatorian, and Hannah Reynolds, 2009 Valedictorian. The high school choir sang "An Irish Blessing" to wish the graduates well. We were blessed by Dr. Nido Qubein, president of High Point University, as our guest speaker. Joseph Winberry, our student body president, had written a letter to Dr. Qubein last summer requesting him to be the speaker at graduation. In his speech, Dr. Qubein told us that he has received over one hundred similar letters, but that Joseph's request was the first that he was willing to grant. He said that his reason for agreeing to be our speaker was that we have the title "Christian" in the name of our school. He believes that HPCA's mission is very important and he said that he was glad to see that being Christ-centered was important enough to us to use the word Christian in our name. Dr. Qubein has been named one of the "Top ten public speakers" in the world, a distinction that he very much deserves. He captured the attention of a full house as he gave us all life lessons to think about. One of his key points that has frequently been quoted since his speech was that, "you are who you surround yourself with." This was an important message not only to our seniors starting the next chapter of their lives, but to all of us.
